The Boat gathering at Black Beard's and other group gatherings

Boat Show and Lake Gaston Run

Blackbeards, Beaufort and Wrightsville Beach Great venues, good attendance

I only attended a few events as my boat was not ready to go. It will be ready for the next season though. My favorite event was the sailing club in New Bern. I can't wait to attend this next year.

Only went to the late season afternoon get to gather in Beaufort, NC

Missed most events due to Covid concerns. Enjoyed seeing everyone again at the Conleys.

on the water events, e.g. Lake Gaston, Hyco Lake, Wrightsville Beach for the social opportunities and to promote our boats

Not really

There are no other locations close enough to consider.

We should meet where the most interest from the most members. Being on Hyco as far west as it is makes the events on the coast an effort but that is just me. Gaston likely still attracts the most members being easy reach for the greatest number of us.

Lake Lure

I am not familiar with the other venues but I would attempt to support any event the club puts on.. there is also some great cruising to be done on the Cape Fear and Black River.

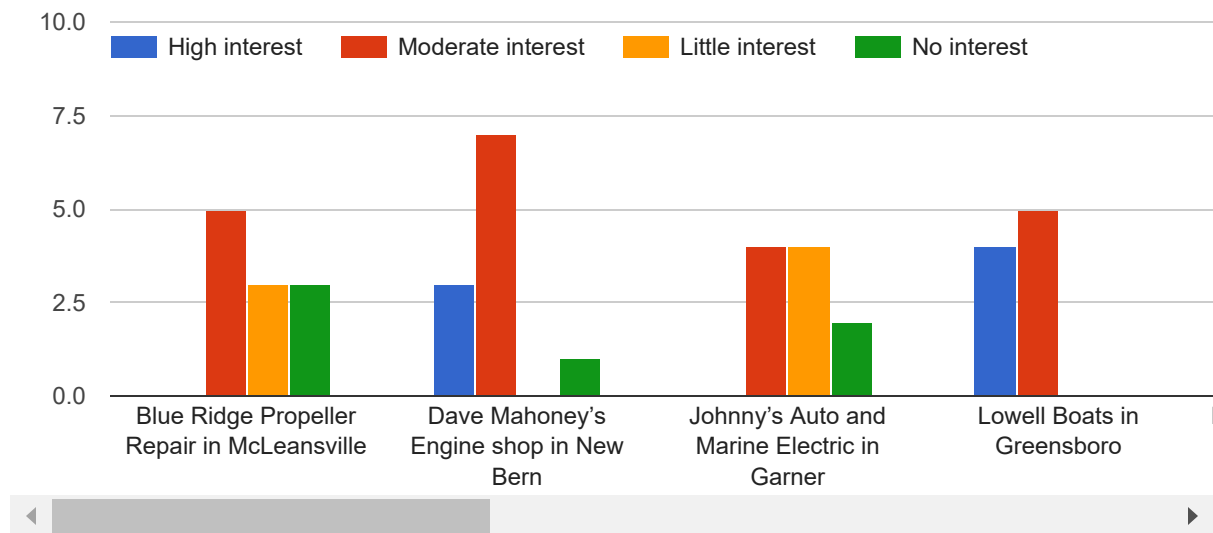

choices are good, White Lake is nuts on the weekends, no real place to tie up last time I checked.

Littleton Labor Day Festival - Buddy Isles Tire & Auto Car & Boat Show

I would like to see more events created to entice more members to join our group.

Please plan the Boat Show in the Spring or Fall... not Summer!

Good Luck with the new year!

We've had lots of interesting and entertaining events for the last few years. More of the same is fine with me.

Most boats get towed to events which pushes events to the middle of the day. Middle of the day boating in late July and August is pretty hot, so maybe think of these events in April, May, June, Sep, Oct, Nov.

I hope we continue to offer opportunities to do things as a group

Do the best you can to move events around where our members live

I think you have some great plans in the making. I will try and get some local antique

We have a great bunch of guys, who, collectively have the answers to almost any boat related problem.

The events should be planned around the state not so mid state and east coast located.

Pleased the Chapter has been so active and many thanks to Alan and Judy Hills for the newsletter and all their hard work and efforts.

I haven't been very active this year, partly because events were scattered. It was easier for me to remember and have on my calendar, a set monthly meeting. However, the new format is probably still more desirable for most members.

Great job in trying to diversify the events and outings!

Sorry for my late response

I wish I was retired!
